2010 Census / Népszámlálás

Are you proud to be Hungarian? Show it on the 2010 census form!

Please complete the census form to ensure that your Hungarian ethnicity, background and cultural heritage are appropriately reflected in your response and counted. This is the only means for determining how many Americans have a Hungarian background.

Please share this information with your friends and make sure that your clubs, organizations, and churches where Hungarian Americans congregate have copies of this notice.

Why fill in that you are Hungarian?
 Because being counted is what the Census is all about! Knowing there is a significant group who identify themselves as Hungarian lets our representatives in Congress know they should keep our interests in mind when they vote on policy and deal with matters of foreign relations that are of special interest to us.

Asked since 1790. Race is key to implementing many federal laws and is needed to monitor compliance with the Voting Rights Act and the Civil Rights Act. State governments use the data to determine congressional, state and local voting districts. Race data are also used to assess fairness of employment practices, to monitor racial disparities in characteristics such as health and education and to plan and obtain funds for public services.
