OTHER NEWS

12/2/2005 - AHF urges US Secretary of State Condoleeza Rice to call attention to Hungarian Minority on her visit to Rumania...

On behalf of the American Hungarian Federation, Frank Koszorus, Jr., submitted a letter to Secretary Condoleeza Rice, on the eve of her trip to Europe that includes Romania, calling attention to the fact that It's time to work together.

Romania must continue its reforms relative to its Hungarian minority. The Federation's letter urges Secretary Rice to raise several issues with her interlocutors, including:

“Romania’s failure to restore church properties confiscated by the previous communist regime; Romania’s failure to adopt the law on national minorities living in Romania; Romania’s refusal to support the Hungarian national minority communities’ (cultural and territorial) autonomy proposals that would ensure local self-governance and the protection of their unique culture and ethnic identity; and Romania’s refusal to establish a Hungarian-language state university.” The letter concludes by noting that Secretary Rice’s “trip presents a wonderful opportunity to promote continued progress by Romania in developing laws and practices toward its minorities that are compatible with Western values and NATO’s security goals and that thereby will advance vital U.S. interests in a stable and democratic Central and Eastern Europe.” [download the full letter]
