How Hungarian Citizens Abroad Can Vote: Dr. Janos Horvath's Awareness Campaign. [Magyarul]

2/18/2006 - Hungarians Abroad voting in Hungarian Parliamentary Elections for the first time... Dr. Janos Horvath, on US Tour to help voters understand the procedures as DEADLINE approaches.

alert! INVITATION

2/22/2006 - AHF encourages all to participate in Janos Horvath meeting in Washington DC! The Hungarian Reformed Federation of America invites all to the Kossuth House to discuss the upcoming elections in Hungary and the opportunity for Hungarian citizens living in the United States to participate in the elections.

When? March 1, 2006 at 6:30 p.m.

About the meeting:

János Horváth, a senior member of the Parliament of Hungary representing the Fidesz-Hungarian Civic Party, is going to visit several North American Hungarian communities between February 26 and March 6. The key purpose of his trip is to underline the significance of the upcoming general Parliamentary elections to be held in April in Hungary, and to spread the news to those Hungarians with voting rights that they may cast their votes at the Hungarian Embassies and Consulates abroad including those in the US and Canada for the first time if they mail their requests with the selected location to the appropriate local authorities in Hungary within the somewhat restrictive statutory deadlines.

Property Restitution in Serbia-Montenegro: June Deadline Approaches

US Embassy reports: "Serbia and Montenegro is one of the last countries in the region to tackle the difficult issue of restitution of property seized or expropriated by the former communist governments. Private American citizens, and other claimants, are often frustrated by the lack of progress on this issue.

The U.S. Embassy continues to raise this issue with government officials at the highest levels. Restitution of seized or expropriated properties differs, depending upon whether the property is located in Serbia or Montenegro." [Read Details in English]

Szerbiában nem az igazi a restitúció

Szerbiában egyelőre várat magára a II. világháborút követően vagyontól megfosztottak kárpótlása. Törvény még nem született a kártalanításról, de egy jogszabály tavaly nyár óta érvényben van, melynek értelmében 2006. június 30-áig a kárvallottaknak vagy leszármazottaiknak be kell nyújtaniuk a Szerb Köztársaság vagyoni jogi igazgatóságának az ellenszolgáltatás nélkül elvett vagyonuk visszaszármaztatására vonatkozó igényt, a megfelelő dokumentáció kíséretében.

látogatást tesz számos észak-amerikai magyar közösségnél a február 26. és március 6. közötti napokban. A legfontosabb célja a látogatásnak az, hogy aláhúzza az áprilisban soron következő magyarországi parlamenti választások jelentőségét, és hogy minden érintetthez eljuttassa a hírt arról, hogy első alkalommal a szabad parlamenti választások történetében a választójoggal rendelkező magyar állampolgárok a magyar követségeken és konzulátusokon is leadhatják a szavazatukat, ideértve az Amerikai Egyesült Államokban és Kanadában található külképviseleteket is, ha erre a vonatkozó kérelmeket a meglehetősen korlátozó jogvesztő határidők betartásával postázzák a megfelelő magyarországi hatóságnak. issues statement. "For 12 days in 1956, the Hungarian people caught a fleeting glimpse of their independence. Armed with little more than a love of liberty, the impatient patriots of Hungary rose up against the mighty Soviet empire," noted Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice during a commemoration of the 1956 Revolution at the Department of State's Benjamin Franklin Room on February 13, 2006. The American Hungarian Federation was represented by over 15 of its members. The Federation honors the true heroes of the 1956 Revolution -- those who were unwilling to compromise and who, against overwhelming odds and standing alone, made tremendous sacrifices for the cause of freedom, democracy and independence. 1/28/2006 - AHF Leadership Conference in Venice, Florida... AHF members met at the Hungarian Christian Society's Hungarian Club in Venice to discuss 2006/2007 plans, how to improve coordination at both a local and national level, and events related to the 50th Anniversary of the Hungarian Revolution. Representatives from Florida organizations presented their activities. Andy Evva and Frank Dobos of the American Foundation for Hungarian Youth and Culture and the Naples Hungarian Club, respectively, provided a multimedia overview of their remarkable recent activities that include extensive plans for 1956 commemorations and a short video on the 1956 Revolution set to powerful rock music with lyrics subtitled in English to appeal to the younger generation. AHF VP Kalman Nagy of the Venice Hungarian Club proudly showed participants AHF's 1956 memorial which he spearheaded and funded with almost $10,000 (seen here with Executive Committee chair Dr. Paul Szilagyi) and unveiled on October 23, 2005 as Hurricane Wilma approached. Istvan Peterman and participants exchanged idea on how to best serve new Hungarian immigrant communities. At the end of the conference, the Hungarian Christian Society Donated $1000.00 to support AHF's national efforts. [\[read more\]](#) share their 1956 experiences. AHF members joined 1956 Freedom Fighters and Washington-area Hungarians in a roundtable discussion sponsored by the Washington Chapter of the Hungarian Reformed Federation of American (HRFA). Branch Manager, Frank Kapitan (seen here), opened the discussion and asked participants to share their personal experiences related to 1956 and discuss the lessons learned and implications of the revolution in today's world. AHF member Zsuzsa Toth transcribed those experiences which can be found on our Website (direct link at the end of article)

Participants included Imre Toth, last surviving Secretary of the Revolutionary Committee for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for the Imre Nagy government, and Per Bang Jensen, whose UN diplomat father died mysteriously after outspokenly supporting the Hungarian Freedom Fighters. AHF's Bryan Dawson-Szilagyi remarked that "unity" and "common purpose" was the lesson to learn from the heroic fight for freedom. [\[read more\]](#)
